

Happy People Read And Drink Coffee Agnès Martin-Lugand

Discussion Questions

1. What did you think of the book?
2. Did you think the title was misleading?
3. What do you think of Diane and Felix's relationship? Do you think he does too much for her?
4. Are Diane's parents realistic about wanting her to return their home?
5. Was Diane's decision to go to Ireland a good idea?
6. What do you think about Jack and Abby relationship with Edward?
7. How did you like the way the author described Mulranny? Did it make you want to visit?
8. Do you think Diane's feelings for Edward are real or just a way to get over her loss?
9. Is Diane's return to Paris smart or should she have stayed in Ireland?
10. Do you think she can be happy again back in Paris?

Happy People Read And Drink Coffee Agnès Martin-Lugand

About the Author

After six years as a clinical psychologist, Agnès Martin-Lugand now devotes herself to literature full-time. She is also the author of Happiness Slips Through My Fingers (Entre mes mains le bonheur se faufile) and the sequel to Happy People Read and Drink Coffee, Don't Worry, Life Is Easy (Le vie est facile, ne t'inquiète pas). Happy People Read and Drink Coffee has sold more than 300,000 copies in France and has been sold in more than 20 territories.

This book is available for download as an eBook. For more information, please visit lpl.overdrive.com or call 519-661-4600.