

Indians On Vacation

Thomas King

Discussion Questions:

1. For Mimi, travel is a way to explore or escape, while Bird seems worn out during the entire trip. In what way do you think their different perspectives affect their shared travel experiences? Whose approach to travel do you most identify with?
2. When you read books that explore different locales, do you look up the areas to have a better visual picture when reading the story? Did you look up any pictures for this book?
3. Are there any points in the novel that caused you to question how the tourism industry operates? How do you feel about travelling to countries experiencing crisis?
4. What did the introduction of the demons add to the story? Was it significant that Mimi, not Bird, named his demons? Did you have a favorite demon?
5. The character Oz is always there to greet Bird, but never gets to meet Mimi. Do you think Mimi believes that Oz could be another one of Bird's demons?
6. What did the quest for the medicine bundle add to the book?
7. How do you feel about the way systemic racism was addressed in this book?
8. A recent review described Bird and Mimi as "two youngish seniors" who have a shared history and are not immune to hurt feelings. How would you characterize their relationship?
9. Bird is feeling dissatisfied with his professional contributions to the world. How is that impacting his overall wellbeing?

About the Author

Thomas King is an award-winning writer and photographer. His critically acclaimed, bestselling books include Medicine River; Green Grass, Running Water; One Good Story, That One; Truth and Bright Water; A Short History of Indians in Canada; The Back of the Turtle (winner of the Governor General's Literary Award for Fiction); The Inconvenient Indian (winner of the RBC Taylor Prize); Indians on Vacation; Sufferance; and the poetry collection 77 Fragments of a Familiar Ruin. A Companion of the Order of Canada and the recipient of a National Aboriginal Achievement Award, Thomas King lives in Guelph, Ontario.

This book is available for download as an eBook. For more information, please visit lpl.overdrive.com or call 519-661-4600.

Author bio from: Thomas King \(harpercollins.ca\)