

Juliet's Answer: One Man's Search for Love and the Elusive Cure for Heartbreak Glenn Dixon

Discussion Questions

1. What was your reaction to learning that there is an enterprise behind answering letters to Juliet? Is there a responsibility to answer the letters?
2. Do you think that seeking advice from a semifictional character from a romantic tragedy is either romantic or tragic?
3. Is there a common trait shared by the secretaries? Do you think you could manage to be one of them?
4. What has your experience with reading Shakespeare been like throughout your life? Do you think you read and appreciate him differently as an adult than you did as an adolescent? Why or why not?
5. Can you think of any other literary settings so uniquely tied to their books and characters as Verona in Romeo and Juliet? Have you or would you ever visit any of them?
6. How would you characterize Glenn's teaching style? Does he remind you of any teacher you had during your school years?
7. Were there any new revelations for you about Shakespeare and/or Romeo and Juliet?
8. Describe Glenn and Claire's relationship. Are they wrong in how they treat each other? How would you describe Glenn's reaction to Claire's big reveal?
9. What role do you think timing had to play in Glenn and Desiree's budding relationship? Do you think that "timing is everything," acts as a principal factor in all relationships
10. How do Glenn and Desiree complement each other? What type of future do you envision for them?

Juliet's Answer:
One Man's Search for Love and the Elusive Cure for Heartbreak
Glenn Dixon

About the Author

Glenn Dixon was the 2014 writer-in-residence for the Vancouver International Writers Festival. He has traveled through more than seventy countries and written for National Geographic magazine, the New York Post, The Walrus, and The Globe and Mail. He taught Shakespeare for twenty years, but it's his hunger for travel and adventure that made him the perfect choice to become one of Juliet's secretaries.

This book is available for download as an eBook and an eAudiobook. For more information, please visit lpl.overdrive.com or call 519-661-4600.