LONDON PUBLIC LIBRARY
POLICY

Title: Public Art Policy
Policy Type: Operational Linkage
Policy No: C-P-10

Issuing Date: April 23, 2015                   Review: April, 2019

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this policy is to enable London Public Library (LPL) to:

- Establish the requirements for the acquisition of public art which is intended to become the property of LPL; and
- Enhance Library spaces and LPL’s role as a significant cultural institution.

SCOPE:

This policy covers all acquisition of public art, whether through purchase, commission or donation, which is intended to become the property of LPL and is housed in Library-owned facilities, externally on Library-owned lands or within Library-leased facilities.

This policy does not apply to:

- Temporary art exhibits, which are governed by the Art Exhibits Policy; and
- LPL’s works of art collection, housed, displayed and maintained by Museum London as referenced in the Agreement of June 2, 1981 between the London Public Library Board and the London Regional Art Gallery, and its subsequent amendments.

DEFINITIONS:

Public art may include artistic creations in any medium, whether fixed or freestanding, including but not limited to murals (including those created by local community members as part of a project or program as approved by LPL), paintings, textile works, stained glass, sculptures, distinct and unique hard and soft landscaping components, special engineering or architectural features of existing capital projects, intended to be freely accessible to the general public in a significant public interior area in the Library or in a visible accessible external location.

Professional artist means a person who is critically recognized as an artist, who possesses skill, training and/or experience in an artistic discipline, and who is active in and committed to his or her art practice.

Purchased art means works that are purchased and subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

Commissioned art is a work of art created by a selected artist by request of the LPL for a specific site.

Donated art is existing artwork given to the Library in the form of a bequest, a gift, or a sponsored acquisition and subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

POLICY STATEMENT:

London Public Library may, from time to time, acquire public art to be the property of the London Public Library Board and housed in LPL locations or on LPL property in order to:

- Enrich the Library experience for the enjoyment of all;
- Enhance the Library environment as public space;
- Engage the community and visitors to the Library;
- Serve as an expression of LPL’s Purpose Statement and Values;
- Be a visual resource, complementing LPL’s collections, services and programs; and

- Exemplify LPL’s role as a significant cultural institution in the City of London.

Ownership

1. Public art, whether purchased art, commissioned art, or donated art, will become LPL’s property.

2. LPL will respect the authorship and the integrity of the public art.

Criteria for Selection

3. General selection criteria for works of public art to be purchased, commissioned or donated include:

   a) Creation by a professional artist and be an original work;
   b) Relevance to London and Londoners;
   c) Execution in mediums approved for housing and maintenance;
   d) Suitability to be viewed by the public of all ages, considering the public nature of the Library as a facility and a community meeting place;
   e) Demonstration of respect for both freedom of expression and human dignity;
   f) Consistency with the laws of Canada and Ontario;
   g) Consideration of unusual display requirements that may impact the access to public space; and
   h) Safety of public and staff.
Acquisition Process

4. Public art may be acquired through purchase, commission or donation.

5. The CEO & Chief Librarian and/or authorized Directors/Managers will act for the LPL in the acquisition of public art, in accordance with the governance policies of the Board, including the Fund Development - Gift Acceptance Policy.

6. The Library must be satisfied that any public art work to be acquired, whether by donation or purchase, is not stolen or otherwise illegally acquired or collected. The acquisition of public art work that has been in foreign countries will comply with all Canadian and international law requirements.

7. The purchase, commission or acceptance of donation of public art, valued at greater than $50,000, requires Library Board approval.

Donated Public Art

8. Donated public art works must be accompanied by:

   a) A warranty of good legal title;
   b) A good record of provenance and must be authenticated, if required;
   c) A statement of current market value, completed by a third party certified appraiser;
   d) Information related to maintenance/conservation requirements; and
   e) Information about the artist.

9. Donations must be free and clear of conditions and restrictions imposed by the donor regarding the LPL’s use of the public art, unless otherwise negotiated through contractual agreement.
10. The Library reserves the right to refuse any donation of public art.

Site Selection

11. LPL retains the right to determine, in consultation with the donor or artist, the site for the public art.

   11.1 Sites selected for the location of public art will be on or in Library-owned properties or facilities, or within Library-leased facilities.

   11.2 Sites selected for the location of public art must be publicly accessible, in a way consistent with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, during regular Library operating hours.

   11.3 The site must be in a visible area and may be integrated into the building and landscapes.

   11.4 The CEO & Chief Librarian, and if required in consultation with the Board, will make the final determination of site.

Sources of Funding

12. The acquisition of public art by the LPL must be funded as a value-added component outside the operating budget.

Maintenance Costs

13. Wherever possible, donated public art will include a funding donation for the maintenance and conservation/restoration of the work being donated, the amount of which will be negotiated as part of a contractual agreement.
14. Maintenance costs for public art, whether purchased, commissioned or donated, will be funded outside the operating budget.

15. The cost of any additional insurance against damage or theft or any other liabilities required for the public art will be funded from outside the operating budget and identified as part of the ongoing maintenance costs of the public art.

Charitable Receipts

16. Donations of public art will be considered as “Gifts-in-Kind” for the purposes of issuing tax receipts under the terms of LPL’s Fund Development - Gift Acceptance Policy.

Disposition

17. The Library reserves the right to dispose of any public art, unless otherwise negotiated through a written contractual agreement.

18. The Library will do everything possible to notify the donor or artist or the artist’s estate when the decision is made to dispose of the public art.

19. The disposed public art may be moved, sold, returned to the artist, donated to another institution or destroyed, unless otherwise negotiated through a written contractual agreement.

20. In all cases, the rights of the artist will be upheld in accordance with the Canadian Copyright Act and other legislated requirements.

21. Criteria for the decision to dispose of public art includes, but is not limited to:

a) Condition of the work and/or cost of maintenance;
b) Work does not meet the terms of the policy; or
c) Current location of work is not suitable or available.

22. Any monies received through the sale of the public art will be placed in the Library Trust Funds.

23. No members of the London Public Library Board, its Employees or Volunteers, or their representatives or immediate families may be given, sold, or otherwise knowingly obtain disposed public art.

24. The disposition of public art valued at greater than $50,000 requires London Public Library Board approval.

Contractual Agreement Development

25. LPL will negotiate contractual agreements with donors, artists, galleries, etc., as required, for purchase, commissioned or donated public art.

Inventory

26. An inventory of all public art will be maintained containing all information on installation, maintenance schedule, correspondence, and contractual agreements.

Accountabilities

27. Accountability for the acquisition, development of contractual agreements, maintenance and management of public art, owned by the Library, is vested in the office of the Chief Executive Office & Chief Librarian.
