

BRANCH INFORMATION

2950 Glanworth Drive, London, ON, N6N 1N6 (519) 681-6797

HOURS OF SERVICE
Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Closed	Closed	7pm-9pm	Closed	Closed	Closed	10am-12pm

SERVICE AREA BOUNDARIES

North	North boundaries of Brockley
East	City Limits
South	City Limits
West	HWY 401 from City Limits to Scotland Dr.; Northwest boundary of Brockley

OVERVIEW OF NEIGHBOURHOOD DEMOGRAPHICS

Households	509
Population	1,338
Education/University Degree	7.6%
Labour Force Participation	50.9%
Visible Minority Presence	3.1%
Immigrants	12.7%

GLANWORTH SERVICES:

- With the renovations, this cozy branch now is accessible to all, provides washroom facilities and is a community gathering place. The Branch provides a computer with internet access, WiFi, and limited programming for children.
- Glanworth Branch has limited collections yet community residents can access the entire LPL system and place holds on items of interest.

BRIEF BRANCH HISTORY

- May 10, 1912 The Glanworth Library Association is formed by Eunice Mary (Meadows) Dawson and Mrs. Robert Fisher.
- July 28, 1912 Glanworth Public Library is established with Eunice Dawson as the first librarian.
- 1923 The Glanworth Library, built with community funds, opens.
- 1963 The Glanworth Library joins the new Middlesex County Library system.
- January 1, 1993 With annexation, the Library acquires its fourteenth and fifteenth branch libraries - Glanworth and Lambeth.
- July 28, 2012 Glanworth Branch Library's 100th Anniversary.
- November 2, 2013 Glanworth Branch closes for renovations to add a washroom and accessible entrance.
- June 24, 2014 The revitalized Glanworth Branch Library opens to the public