Ms. Susanna Hubbard Krimmel
CEO and Chief Librarian
London Public Library
251 Dundas Street
London, ON N6A 6H9

Dear Ms. Hubbard Krimmel:

Thank you for your email enclosing the Report to the Library Board, which was forwarded to the Honourable John Milloy, Minister of Training, Colleges and Universities, by MPP Steve Peters, Elgin-Middlesex-London. The Minister has asked me to respond on his behalf.

I appreciated the opportunity to meet with yourself and Margaret Mitchell on March 5 to discuss the status of the existing Employment Ontario services that are offered to London residents at the Library through an Employment Resource Centre (ERC).

As discussed during that meeting, as the London Public Library ERC operates as a stand-alone ERC without capacity for Employment Ontario Employment Services, the agreement ending in September 2009 will be extended, pending the development of an Information and Referral strategy. The ministry will be advising all service providers with agreements ending between now and September 2009 that such agreements will be extended up to and including March 31, 2010. I understand that you will be communicating this information to the Library Board.

Thank you again for writing and for your commitment to providing essential employment information and referral services to Londoners.

Yours truly,

Sherree Mahood
Director, Western Region
Employment and Training Division
