All about Friends

Who are the Friends of the London Public Library?

People who value the Library’s role in serving the learning, literacy, research, recreation, and communication needs of Londoners.

People who enjoy volunteering to raise funds in support of enhancements to Library collections and services.

People who can be advocates for the Library in their neighbourhoods and city.

What are the benefits of being a Friend?

Discount of 10% off regularly priced books at Oxford Books with a current membership card.

Special preview night for book sale volunteers before the annual book sale.

A newsletter, Among Friends, which keeps members informed about events, volunteer opportunities, and friendly news.

Attendance at programs and events planned or sponsored by the Friends.

An opportunity to work with others to enhance library collections and programs.

The satisfaction of working with others to contribute to the community, by supporting an important civic institution.
