London Public Library endeavours to provide relevant, accessible, high quality collections for the use and enjoyment of the public. The purpose of the Collections Management Policy is to establish:

- Library Board policy for the development, maintenance and management of Library collections;
- Processes for members of the public to provide input; and
- Accountability for the management of Library collections.

SCOPE: This policy governs all collections materials in all formats held by the London Public Library and made available to the public. The policy is in accordance with the principles of universal and equitable access and with London Public Library’s Vision, Mission and Service Excellence Model.

DEFINITIONS:

“Format” is the physical form of material and applies to all literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works; sound recordings; and recorded performances. Physical forms include: print, audiovisual, digital and multimedia.

POLICY STATEMENT:

1. It is the policy of the London Public Library to provide collections that:
   - Represent a wide range of ideas, creative thought, information and viewpoints;
   - Meet present and future literacy, learning, informational, culture, leisure and recreational needs of the community;
   - Provide access to current and retrospective content;
   - Include a wide variety of formats; and
   - Are delivered through a multi-tiered service delivery model which rationalizes the location, scope and focus of collections.
Collections Management Philosophy

2. The Library Board, in establishing this policy, is cognizant of Section 2(b) of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms which guarantees everyone the freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression, including freedom of the press and other media of communication.

3. This policy is consistent with the Library Board’s endorsement, as policy, of the Statement of Intellectual Freedom of the Canadian Library Association which reads in part:

"It is the responsibility of libraries to guarantee and facilitate access to all expressions of knowledge and intellectual activity, including those which some elements of society may consider to be unconventional, unpopular or unacceptable. To this end, libraries shall acquire and make available the widest variety of materials."

4. The Library Board is aware that in providing collections that represent a wide range of ideas, creative thought, information and viewpoints, some materials in the collection may be considered objectionable by some people. The Library recognizes the right of any individual or group to reject library material for personal use, but does not accord to any individual or group the right to restrict the freedom of others to make use of that same material.

5. Except where limited by law, children are entitled to access all materials provided by the Library. Parents and legal guardians are responsible for monitoring and limiting the use of Library materials by their children.

6. The presence of materials in the Library collections does not constitute an endorsement of their content or viewpoints by the Library Board.

7. LPL acts in compliance with federal and provincial legislation including the Canadian Copyright Act and other laws governing intellectual property, the Criminal Code of Canada, and other legislation, such as the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), governing access to and communication of information, knowledge, opinion, creative thought and intellectual activity. Collections Development

8. Collections development decisions are made consistent with London Public Library’s Vision, Mission and Service Excellence Model and this collection development policy.

9. General materials selection criteria are:
   - Popular demand and responsiveness to current demographic and social trends;
   - Suitability of subject and style for intended audience;
   - Suitability of physical form for library use;
   - Relationships to existing collection and other material on the subject;
   - Reputation and/or significance of the author;
   - Local significance of authors and/or subject;
   - Currency and relevance;
   - Availability in the marketplace; and
   - Purchase price and other budgetary considerations.

10. LPL provides access to or arranges for the provision of access to accessible materials, where such materials exist in the marketplace, according to standards established by federal and provincial legislation, including the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). This includes collecting a variety of formats which support people in ways they prefer or require, in order to access and use content. Special collections and archival materials are exempt in some areas.

11. Community needs, marketplace trends and availability, the anticipated impact on existing resources, cost and budget availability are all assessed before a new format is introduced. The introduction of a new format may result in the Library’s decision to retire another format or formats from its collections.
